

JULIANA ZOTO EFESSIOU

THE CHARTER 100 DC PROGRAMS CO-CHAIR, 2020-2021

Juliana Zoto Efessiou, a mediator, has over 25 years in 5 diverse and successful new businesses, targeting a broad spectrum of the professional and consumer markets. Throughout her career, ranging from co-founding a dialysis center, coffee bar, bridal boutique, and co-producing a radio show, she has been the point person for resolving conflict, assisting the parties in dispute to find a mutually acceptable solution. Having been divorce twice, Juliana firmly believes mediation versus litigation best serves the parties, especially the children. She has an abiding dedication to public advocacy. Connecting to her core passion, Juliana's best skills are building relationships, connecting people and businesses, and helping people live their best lives. Juliana's personal interests are the arts, theatre, golf, roller blading, traveling with her husband, going to the beach, and spending as much time as possible with her grandchildren. Juliana lives with her husband in Vienna, Virginia.
